

Class of 2026 Plan of study: Newly updated curriculum

Details: 56 credits. 2-year/5 semester face-to-face program. Coursework/clinic is completed in the summer between year 1 and year 2. There are two to three strategically placed online courses.

Year 1:

FALL	SPRING
601 (2) Research Design in SLP	616 (2) Neurogenic Disorders II: Adult and Pediatric brain injury
615 (2) Neurogenic Disorders I: Adult language [aphasia; right hemisphere dysfunction]	618 (2) Swallowing II [pediatric; advanced adult]
617 (2) Swallowing I [normal; adults]	631 (2) Pediatric & Adult Motor Speech Disorders [dysarthria & apraxia]
620 (3) Seminar: Voice and resonance disorders	642 (3) Augmentative and Alternative Communication
646 (1) Clinic	646 (1) Clinic
647 (3) Diagnostic and Clinical Decision-Making	682 (2) Seminar: Social & Cognitive Correlates of Communication Disorders [autism; social communication disorders]
	695a (1) Portfolio (Plan B) OR 699 (1) thesis
Total: 13 credits	Total: 13 credits

Year 2:

SUMMER
Required	624 (2) Seminar: Stuttering and Related Fluency disorders, offered online
	646 (4-6, usually 4) Clinic (On or off campus)
Total:	6-8 would usually be 6 for all (unless unusual clinical tracking for an approved reason).

FALL	SPRING
627 (2) Communication in Normal Aging and Dementia	SLP 690 (1) Advanced Language, offered online or hyflex
646 Clinic on or off campus (4-6), usually 6 for all, unless unique clinical tracking)	SLP 675 (2) Seminar: Professional Issues in SLP, offered online
SLP 690 (2) Child & Adolescent Lang. Disorders	646 (8) Clinic on or off campus
695b (1) Portfolio (Plan B) or 699 (2) Thesis (Plan A)	695 (1) (Plan B)
	Or (699 (1) Thesis), Plan A, if applicable
Total: 11 or 12 credits	Total: 12 credits

N. Paul updated 09/24