
GERMAN IRRITATION GROWS

Teutons Dislike Attitude of America
Toward European War is Belief
at Washington.

Washington, April 8.—Signs of increasing German irritation at America's attitude toward the European war is seen here. High government officials would not discuss them, but about the departments they were much commented upon. These cumulative items were named: